

PRIVACY POLICY

Bowes Agricultural Society understands that privacy and the use of your personal data is important to you. Therefore, we are committed to protecting your personal data and only collect and use this in the ways which are described below and, in a way, consistent with our obligations and your rights under the law.

We will process your personal data as necessary to facilitate your entry to Bowes Agricultural Society Show.

We will not transfer your data outside of the European Economic Area and will not share your data with third parties, except we reserve the right to share with Breed Societies and/or affiliated Societies and Equine Events, to whom we submit entries and results, to be checked for validity and eligibility for legitimate interests.

Results will be published on our website and will be sent to members of the local press.

We will retain your personal data to simplify the process of sending you future information appertaining to Bowes Agricultural Society, for example the following years show schedule. This information will be stored securely with the General Secretary or Section Secretary as required.

You have rights over the data that we hold including rectification and objecting to the processing of this information.

We do not use Cookies.

If you require any further information regarding this privacy policy, please contact the General Secretary via email at generalsecretarybowesshow@outlook.com
