Theme “Nursery Rhymes and Fairy Tales”

Scarecrows will need to be on display from Saturday 27th August until Show Day on Saturday 10th September, when we are inviting everyone to bring their entries down to the show field, when the winners will be announced!
The scarecrows will be judged on August 27th.
The scarecrows can be created by families, groups or individuals.

Anyone wishing to enter who does not have a suitable, safe or local position to display their scarecrow please contact Denise Marmont as we have locations available within the village.

We will provide a list of addresses where the scarecrows are, so everyone can enjoy them.
